'Living life in all its fullness' John 10:10

Christian Values: Courage, Compassion, Trust, Friendship, Wisdom, Endurance

Dear Parents and Carers,

The House and Shadow House Captains led House meetings this week to get to know each other and consider which Christian Values represented their House the best. Trust and Friendship were high up among their priorities but they thought that all the Christian Values were needed to create an inclusive, resilient House. They also said they liked having the job roles because it meant that they had a responsibility for looking after each other, the school and it would help prepare them for secondary school. Meanwhile the Vision Leaders were finding out how well the children know our vision 'Living life in all its fullness' and what this means to them. The Vision Leaders reported back, saying that some Houses had a better understanding than others, so some work to be done which the Vision Leaders are looking forward to doing next week.

I also asked the Leaders what they thought about the pilgrimage and they said that they felt it was an achievement because they continued on the walk, even though it was raining.

'It was fun, and tiring'

'I had a sense of fulfilment and was proud of myself for having completed the pilgrimage'

'We enjoyed getting to know the younger children'

A great start to being Pupil Leaders—well done!

Best wishes,
Mrs Stephenson

Remembrance Day

The children led a Remembrance Service today, sharing their understanding of what Remembrance Day means to them. They acknowledged and were thankful for the sacrifices that people have made during times of war. We listened to one of our past pupils playing the 'Last Post' and held a two minute silence. It was a moving moment of contemplation and reflection. Thank you Robins team for preparing the display.

Parental Controls for Devices

Deciding what's appropriate for children to see online

We have noticed an increase in the number of children talking about inappropriate games or clips of games and want to draw your attention to the NSPCC website which has advice on how to use Parental Controls.

Big Question

What is charity?

Why do people donate to charity?

Children in Need

The children are welcome to wear something spotty or stripy to school on Friday to celebrate 'Children in Need'.

Thank you!

The PTFA would like to thank everyone for their lovely donations for the tombola and also for all the cakes! The cake sales are going extremely well and it is a lovely way to end our week. Thank you PTFA for arranging it!

School Website Usage Statistics

We hope you are finding the new school website easy to navigate through. It is lovely to see the class blogs being read each week. Well done Red Kites Parents/Carers - it appears you are accessing the class blog the most at the moment. Keep logging in to find out about your child's learning!

Class Blogs

Do have a look at the updated class blog pages to find out about your child/ren's learning this week.
